The Class of 1982 Hereby Dedicates its Corinthian to:
Dr. Robert M. Aiken,
(Director of Education)

Dr. Robert M. Aiken

The Class of 1982 would like to express its heartfelt appreciation to Dr. Robert M. Aiken for all that he has contributed towards making our last year at Girard a pleasant one.

Dr. Aiken has consistently displayed understanding and respect towards our class, virtues we greatly admired. He never failed to set a good example, and was always willing to help us when we had difficulties. The Class will long remember the meals we shared with Dr. and Mrs. Aiken and the graciousness they showed us.

Dr. Aiken, your abundant school spirit and pride have revealed to us what it means to be a Girardian. The Class of 1982 wishes you and Mrs. Aiken all the luck and blessings that God has to offer. We sincerely hope that in the future we can make you as proud of us as we are of you.

In Appreciation . . .

Mr. Rocco P. Serluco
Instructor of Printing

The Class of 1982 would like to express its deepest appreciation to Mr. Rocco Serluco.

Mr. Serluco, you have been an inspiration to all of us. Through your fine example you have shown us what it truly means to be an alumnus. We are sincerely grateful for your understanding, caring, and willingness to help.

We would also like to thank you for your invaluable assistance with the yearbook.

We wish you well, Mr. Serluco!

Mr. Robert Fisher

The Class of 1982 would also like to extend its heartfelt appreciation to Mr. Robert Fisher, who has both assisted and guided us during our stay in Bordeaux Hall.

Your thoughtful guidance has surely steered us in the right direction. Your sense of humor has endeared you to the Class and will be fondly remembered in the years to come.

Once again, our deepest appreciation, Mr. Fisher! We wish you luck in all future endeavors.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

To the Class of 1982:

If you have cooperated with us and exerted effort, Girard College has given you the basic fundamentals and habits that will enable you to earn a living and to continue with higher education; it has started you on the path to clear thinking; it has encouraged tolerance and cooperation to develop good citizenship; and above all, it has sought to make you men of integrity. If you have done your part, you have a sound foundation upon which to build a useful and happy life.

I should like to record here the charges which have been given for many years to the members of the graduating class as part of the Commencement Exercises:

"Sons of Girard, I charge you now, and in the days to come, to be truly sons of Girard: to prove yourselves worthy his name, never to betray the trust in which the Founder placed you; to use in the building of your lives what you have learned here — not only the knowledge gained, but the qualities of character which have been developed — an understanding of your fellow man, loyalty and devotion to country and all it represents, and love and reverence for your God. You may not all have the opportunity to be heroes, but you can all manifest nobility of character. You may not all bring forth world-shaking ideas, but you can all express intelligence and integrity and loving kindness. Just as the lives of those Girardians who have preceded you may serve as an inspiration to you, so may you, in turn, not only inspire the generations of Girardians which are to follow, but also be an influence for good upon all whom your lives will touch."

May your achievements bring honor to yourself and to Girard College and may life be good to you.

Dr. John A. Lander

LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

The Class of 1982 will always be very special to me since you will be the first graduating class during my term as Director of Education. As such, I have come to know each of you personally; and because I have, I expect very great things from you. I know your potential; I know how hard you can work; and I know how much you care about each other.

As you commence a new life, a life in which you will be totally responsible for your actions, you must continue the good habits you have formed here. Self-discipline must be reflected in all your actions. Hard work will be rewarded. Walking humbly with your God will keep the necessary perspective in your life so that you will be a better person and one respected by all.

Best wishes to all of you for a happy, productive life.

Almost everything worth knowing you will learn after leaving school, for your school years only teach you the discipline of self-control needed in later life.

Resolve that whatever you do, do it with all your might.

Dedicate some of your life in others, for you learn to know true happiness when you serve others who have nothing.

As you leave Girard an important phase of your life ends. Another begins. I do not think that you will forget this institution, your classmates, teachers, house-masters and all the others who have influenced you.

I sincerely hope that you will be able to reflect fondly on the formative years that you have spent here. I hope too that you will be successful in your careers, at peace with yourself and content.

At Girard you have learned the importance of friendship. Be loyal to your friends. Help them whenever you can. Your concern for the welfare of others will be returned to you in many ways.

Good luck to you!

The Class of '82 will be remembered for their sense of humor. You were as enjoyable in the classroom as on a raft or canoe trip and you provided a challenge to the creativity and ingenuity of your teachers. Although you will remember your escapades more fondly, the values and self-discipline which we tried to instill in you will be of lasting value.

I wish you all the best of luck and success in life.

GUIDANCE

Mrs. Elizabeth Goodenow

To the Class of 1982,

Your years at Girard have hopefully built within each of you a solid foundation on which to build your future. May each of you find life rewarding and fulfilling.

Elizabeth Goodenow

Mr. John Lestino

To the Class of 1982,

Your experiences during the past years have set the tone for your present and future endeavors. If you carry a sense of fair play and the skill to listen, you will have truly become educated. If you're motivated to set goals, and make a plan to attain those goals, you'll truly be satisfied with life and the joys it offers.

Fraternally,
John Lestino

In Special Appreciation . . .

. . . Mr. Joseph Shuster

Mr. Shuster, you have done so much for so many Girardians! It is not possible to thank you for all that you have contributed through the years. There is no way to give you the credit and recognition that you deserve. Your straightforward manner and willingness to help others have inspired hundreds of Girard boys. Through your understanding and selflessness you have gained the respect of everyone who has had the pleasure of knowing you. It was a very rare occasion, indeed, when a student in need of aid could not find you in your classroom after school.

Your keen sense of humor and good natured quips made class interesting and entertaining. Many "Hummers" have profited from your genius in the field of mathematics.

Mr. Shuster, you will never be forgotten by our class. You have greatly contributed towards maintaining Girard College's standards of excellence, and for this and many of your other endearing qualities, you will be sorely missed. We wish you all the luck in the world.

 I had enough of trying to love my brother
 I had enough of being good

 Life is for the living, takers never giving
 Suspicion takes the place of trust
 My love is turning into lust
 If you get on the wrong side of me
 You better run for cover
 I had enough of being taunted on

*Run a silent path to nowhere, everything is all
You could have a pleasant life if summer had no fall.
Treat yourself so gently though the task is often hard,
Man is not a god it seems, who holds the final card.
Close your eyes and feel the darkness, speak and hear the sound,
We only catch a glimpse of all the life that is around.
The man is not alive who knows the value of his soul,
And when our lives are pulled away, there's more to fill the hole.
I wonder what you'd think if all the changes didn't come,
For growing old is only going back to where you're from.
Far beyond our senseless thoughts there lies a core of gold
Where essence of the newborn child is waiting in the old.
The Master Plan is well conceived, it's there for all to see,
And each day that is spent in thought is living harmony.
Reach into the depths of being, pass beyond the years
Time is lost in stillness, where there are no hopes and fears.
Linger in the void, and like a beacon in the night
Purity will fill your soul with ever-present light.
Everything you seek is waiting patiently within,
For growing old is only going back to where you've been.*

Dear Student Body,

This year as your president was an eventful one. It was a year in which I learned much and will never forget. I'd like to thank all the students who sponsored my endeavors to supply activities and leadership. I wish that the relationships with the other schools which were established will continue. My thanks to out to the faculty, staff, and administration for being so understanding. Also, my special thanks to the Alumni Association for being on hand, and lending their support whenever the occasion arose. I also wish to thank the employees of the College for being my family-away-from-home.

To the Student Body President of the future, whether you accept it or not, you are the vital center of student representation and communication for the Girard community, and beyond. The office of S.B.P. is a measure of self responsibility, and should not be taken lightly. Good luck in all endeavors and may God be with you.

Sincerely,

They hate you if you're clever and they despise a fool
Till you're crazy you can't follow their rules*

*When they tortured and scared you for twenty odd years
Then they expect you to pick a career
When you can't recall function you're so full of fear
They keep you doped with religion and sex and T.V.

But you're still peasants as far as I can see

EVERYBODY HAS A DREAM

While in these days of quiet desperation
 As I wander through the world in which I live
 I search everywhere for some new inspiration
 But it's more than cold reality can give
 If I need a cause for celebration
 Or a comfort I can use to ease my mind
 I rely on my imagination
 And I dream of an imaginary time
 I know everybody has a dream
 Everybody has a dream
 And this is my dream, my own
 Just to be at home
 And to be alone . . . with you
 If I believe in all the words that I'm saying
 And if a word from you can bring a better day
 Then all I have are these games that I've been playing
 To keep my hope from crumbling away
 So let me lie and let me keep on sleeping
 And I will lose myself in palaces of sand
 And all the fantasies that I've been keeping
 Will make the empty hours easier to stand
 I know that everybody has a dream
 Everybody has a dream
 And this is my dream, my own,
 Just to be at home
 And to be all alone . . . with you

The Class of 1982 wishes to pay tribute to Mrs. Phyllis Bacher, Miss Charlsie Baird, Mrs. Carolyn Callard, Mr. John Rothfuss, Miss Floisa Santini, Mr. Joseph Sine, Jr. and Mr. James Wiant, III, whose caring, gentle guidance and sterling example helped us immeasurably on our way through the formative years of our early Girard lives.

These teachers and houseparents faithfully executed our Founder's intentions. Many thanks and the best of wishes to them all!

PENN-JERSEY CHAMPIONS 1981-82

Although the four seniors, six juniors, three sophomores and two freshmen on this year's varsity team got off to a slow start, winning only one of their first five games, it wasn't long before they really began to play like a team.

With everyone hustling on the field and helping each other out, there was an impressive effort that paid off as our superstars compiled eight consecutive shutout victories, seven of which were league games. The seventh shutout gave the G.C. soccer team its first Penn-Jersey Championship since 1976. The team's league record was eight wins - one loss - one tie; the eighth win secured the team championship.

Thanks to our dedicated coach, Mr. James Mills and his assistant, Mr. David McKay, the soccer team acquired the skills needed to retain the title next season.

Robert Trotter and Mr. James Mills

CROSS-COUNTRY

SECOND ROW: Ali Atefi-Monfared, Scott Bennett, Scott McLeod, Mandric Wright, Frank Arena, Ken Annand, and Keith Koenig
THIRD ROW: Coach Joseph Gibbons, Steve McLeod, Anthony Williams, and Richard Bennett)

Primed by an outstanding coach, Mr. Joseph Gibbons, this year's cross country team finished an exciting season with an overall record of nine wins - five losses and a Penn-Jersey score of six wins - three losses.

The cross country team was a success due to the dedication, enthusiasm and team spirit so apparent this year. Next year's team will be stronger than ever with returning starters from the junior, sophomore and freshmen classes.

With the continued guidance of Mr. Gibbons and more of the hard work we saw this year, next year's "Roadrunners" should be able to take home the coveted Penn-Jersey trophy.

Good luck to the 1982-1983 team and many thanks to Mr. Gibbons for all of his help.

Mr. Joseph Gibbons and Frank Arena

Anthony Williams and Rich Bennett

Although this year's wrestling team had an overall losing record of two wins, twelve losses and one tie, there were some outstanding players: Joe Reilly, Kevin Chambers and James Ragin.

Reilly captured the 138 pound championship along with Ragin at 105 pounds at the Penn-Jersey Tournament where Girard took third place. Reilly and Ragin, along with Kevin Chambers, will be returning mat men next season.

Other promising wrestlers who will be back next year are Ali Atefi and Keith Keonig. We are confident that the wrestling team will be Number One next season!

Mr. Ronald Colson

The 1981-1982 basketball team had a rough year. Although there were some talented players, the team could not find a way to win. Poor attitudes and low grades did not help.

Early in the season the team participated in two tournaments. Although favored to win the Kiwanis Tournament for the second consecutive year, Girard did not perform well, finishing in fourth place. The team experienced difficulties early in the season and never really rebounded.

Hopefully, next year's players will keep their grades up and their minds clear. If so, Girard will come out on top!

BASEBALL

(KNEELING: Tennie James, Tom DiRenzo, Joe Reilly, Harry Tran, Ron McKee, David Tyler, and Leon Gray. STANDING: Mr. Gallagher, Bill Stanislawczyk, John Wilt, Rich Bennett, Bob Trotter, and Colin Brennan.)

Thanks to the coaching of Mr. William Gallagher, the 1982 varsity baseball team finished the season one game under .500 (12-13), clearly the best results in the past decade.

This was the first time in the fourteen year history of the Penn-Jersey Conference that Girard fielded a playoff team. Girard came within two runs of attending the Penn-Jersey Conference Championships at Glen Mills.

In addition to this distinction, the team was invited to the first annual A.N.C. Tournament, where they finished second to Philmont Christian Academy.

The players that are leaving the College this year would like to wish next year's team the best of luck in competing for the Penn-Jersey Championships. They would also like to thank coach "Gal" for his leadership and guidance.

TRACK & FIELD

This year's track team was one of the best in many years. The overall record of the squad was ten wins/five losses, with tow meets being lost by very narrow margins.

In the Penn-Jersey League, the team's record was 3-1, the one loss being by only half a point. Girard went into the Penn-Jersey Championships with eagerness, and by the time the final event was to be held, a victory looked promising for the team. Two false starts, however, resulted in Girard's disqualification from this deciding event, enabling Glen Mills school to defeat Girard 66-63.

The team members know in their hearts though, that they are the true champs. With the outstanding coaching of Mr. Bob Jackson and Mr. Arnold Schiffrin they will be able to prove it next year!

TENNIS

Led by a new coach, Mr. Rick Saddler, and captain Tim Merkel, the tennis team had more individual victories (six) than in the last five years.

The fact that there was only one team win may be attributable to the near-impossibility of fielding a full squad. With only twenty-nine boys in the junior and senior classes, not all of whom chose to participate in sports, the number of potential players was indeed limiting. The tennis team was often outmanned by opposing teams and as a result, team morale suffered.

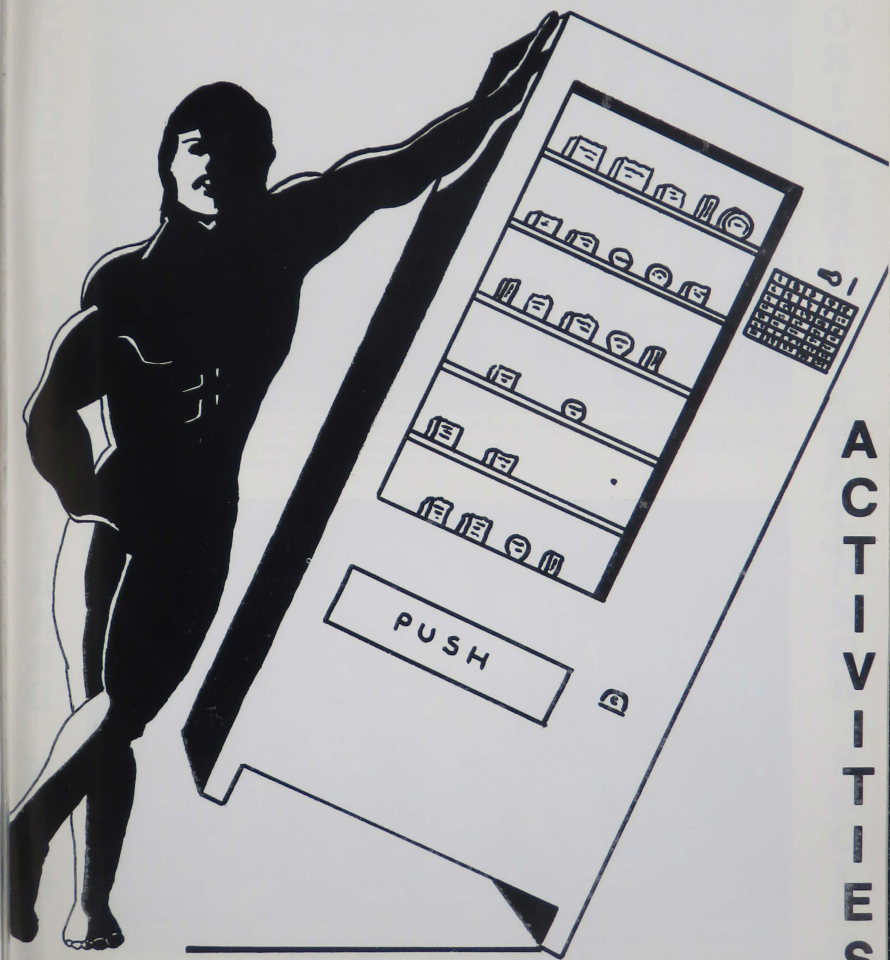

We leave, however a select few underclassmen who are dedicated to the sport, and who, with proper instruction and motivation can help to once again make tennis a competitive sport at Girard College.
